

A STEP-BY-STEP WORKBOOK

Build Your Personal Productivity System

Simple. Focused. Yours.

Create a simple system to organize your time, focus on what matters, and get things done.

6 steps · 6 worksheets · 7-day setup plan

Your system in 6 steps.

Each step builds on the last. Follow them in order.

HOW TO USE THIS WORKBOOK

- 1 Read the step. It takes about 2 minutes.
- 2 Do the worksheet straight away. Write in this PDF, print it or use a notebook.
- 3 Move on only when it's filled in. Finishing each step is what builds the system.
- 4 Take one step per day. You will finish in about a week.

WHAT YOU'LL NEED

- ☐ A notebook or notes app (your inbox)
- ☐ A calendar you check daily
- ☐ A timer (your phone is fine)
- ☐ 20 to 30 minutes per step

REMEMBER

Keep it simple. A basic system you actually use beats a perfect one you abandon.

Clarify What Matters

GOAL You will know your top 3 priorities for this season.

WHY IT MATTERS

A system without direction only organises busy work. Start with what you actually want.

EXAMPLE

Health: walk for 20 minutes, 4 days a week.

HOW TO DO IT

- 1 Pick 4 life areas. Work or study, health, relationships and growth are a good start.
- 2 Write one outcome for each. What do you want in the next 90 days?
- 3 Choose your top 3 overall. Circle the outcomes that matter most.
- 4 Test your choice. Ask: if I finish only these, will I feel proud?

TIP

Fewer priorities beat a long list.

YOUR TURN Fill this in now.

Life area	Outcome I want in the next 90 days

MY TOP 3 PRIORITIES

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

Capture Everything

GOAL You will have one trusted place for every task and idea.

WHY IT MATTERS

Your mind is for thinking, not remembering.
Capturing frees up mental space.

EXAMPLE

"Book dentist", "Email landlord", "Idea: start a blog".

HOW TO DO IT

- 1 Choose one inbox. A notes app, a notebook or a task app. Just one.
- 2 Brain dump for 10 minutes. Tasks, worries, ideas, deadlines. Don't judge.
- 3 Capture as things appear. Add new items straight to your inbox.
- 4 Empty it daily. Sort every item once a day (see Step 3).

TIP

Capture first. Judge later.

YOUR TURN Set up your inbox, then empty your head.

My inbox will be:

BRAIN DUMP: WRITE EVERYTHING ON YOUR MIND

Organise and Prioritise

GOAL

You will know what to do now, next and later.

WHY IT MATTERS

Not everything is urgent. Sorting your tasks shows what truly needs your time.

EXAMPLE

"Submit report" goes to Do now. "Sort old photos" goes to Delete.

HOW TO DO IT

- 1 Sort every item. Place it in one of the four boxes.
- 2 Pick today's top 3. Choose them from the "Do now" box.
- 3 Add a next step. Give each task a clear first action or due date.
- 4 Group similar tasks. Work, home and errands in separate lists.

TIP

If everything is urgent, nothing is.

YOUR TURN

Sort your brain dump into the four boxes.

DELEGATE OR LIMIT

Plan Your Time

GOAL

You will have a weekly plan with protected focus time.

WHY IT MATTERS

Tasks without a time slot rarely happen. A simple plan turns intentions into actions.

EXAMPLE

Mon 9:00 to 10:30: write report draft.

HOW TO DO IT

- 1 Add fixed commitments first. Classes, meetings, meals and travel.
- 2 Block 2 to 3 focus sessions. Give each 60 to 90 minutes for a priority.
- 3 Add buffers and breaks. Things take longer than you expect.
- 4 Leave 20% free. Space for surprises keeps your plan alive.

TIP

Plan for the week you really have.

YOUR TURN

Sketch your week. Add fixed items first, then focus blocks.

Day	Morning	Afternoon	Evening

Focus and Finish

GOAL You will complete focused sessions without drifting.

WHY IT MATTERS

Switching between tasks drains energy. One clear task at a time gets things finished.

EXAMPLE

"Done": first draft written, not perfect.

HOW TO DO IT

- 1 Pick one task. Write down what "done" means.
- 2 Set a timer. 25 to 50 minutes works well.
- 3 Remove distractions. Silence notifications and move your phone away.
- 4 Break, then repeat. Rest for 5 to 10 minutes between sessions.

TIP

A clear finish line makes starting easier.

YOUR TURN Run one session now.

BEFORE YOU START

- ☐ Task chosen and "done" defined
- ☐ Timer set (25 to 50 minutes)
- ☐ Phone out of sight
- ☐ Notifications off
- ☐ Break planned

Review and Improve

GOAL You will keep your system working week after week.

WHY IT MATTERS

A system you never review slowly drifts. A short weekly check keeps it useful.

EXAMPLE

Sunday 5:00 pm, with a cup of tea.

HOW TO DO IT

- 1 Pick a weekly slot. 20 minutes, same day and time each week.
- 2 Check what you finished. Celebrate progress before fixing problems.
- 3 Move or delete the rest. Don't carry old tasks forever.
- 4 Choose next week's top 3. Then update your calendar.

TIP

Small weekly tweaks beat big overhauls.

YOUR TURN Do this at the end of your week.

WHAT WILL I CHANGE?

ONE THING TO KEEP DOING

Your day, simplified.

Two short rituals keep the whole system running. Adapt them to your life.

Morning start

10 MIN

- ☐ Check your calendar
- ☐ Review your inbox
- ☐ Pick your top 3 for today

My morning ritual:

Focus blocks

YOUR BEST HOURS

- ☐ Start with your first priority
- ☐ Work in 25 to 50 minute sessions
- ☐ Check messages only at set times

My focus hours:

Evening shutdown

10 MIN

- ☐ Review what you finished
- ☐ Empty your inbox
- ☐ Write tomorrow's top 3

My shutdown ritual:

When things go wrong.

Every system hits bumps. Find your problem and try the fix.

IF

I keep ignoring my plan.

TRY Plan less. Limit yourself to 3 tasks a day and build from there.

IF

I have too many tasks.

TRY Delete or defer anything not linked to your top 3 priorities.

IF

I get distracted.

TRY Move your phone away, turn off notifications and try 25-minute sessions.

IF

My plans keep falling apart.

TRY Add buffers and plan 20% less than you think you can do.

IF

I forget to review.

TRY Put your weekly review in your calendar with a reminder.

IF

I feel overwhelmed.

TRY Pick one task, set a 5-minute timer and just start.

REMEMBER

Adjust the system to fit your life, not the other way around.

Your system on one page.

Fill this in, then keep it where you can see it every day.
